Unique Student Identifier (USI)

From 1 January 2015, QIBA can be prevented from issuing you with a nationally recognised VET qualification or statement of attainment when you complete your course if you do not have a Unique Student Identifier (USI). In addition, we are required to include your USI in the data we submit to NCVER. If you have not yet obtained a USI you can apply for it directly at <http://www.usi.gov.au/create-your-USI/> on a computer or mobile device. Please note that if you would like to specify your gender as 'other' you will need to contact the USI Office for assistance.

Enter your Unique Student Identifier (USI) (if you already have one)

Student Declaration

I declare the information I have provided to the best of my knowledge is true and correct. I consent to the collection, use and disclosure of my personal information in accordance with the Privacy Notice below. I authorise QIBA to obtain further information for my application. I have read and understood the entry requirements for the course that I have enrolled in and I agree with these conditions. I have read, understood and agree to the Terms and Conditions as outlined below. I have read and understood the QIBA Student Handbook available on the website, www.qiba.edu.au.

Student Name

Date

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.

- 1.1. These Terms and Conditions, the Letter of Offer and Acceptance of Offer together form a binding Agreement between QIBA and the recipient. Provision of enrolment is subject to a payment of one agreed fee. Refund calculations are based on the minimum payment in accordance with the ESOS Act 2012.
 - 1.2. The Terms of Offer may be subject to variation as necessary to comply with any Australian Commonwealth or State law, regulation or amendment thereof.
 - 1.3. QIBA's responsibilities to the student pertain only to the course(s) outlined in the Letter of Offer.
 - 1.4. All conditions and special notes contained in the Letter of Offer must be met and/or agreed to prior to QIBA issuing a Confirmation of Enrolment.
 - 1.5. Students must meet the minimum English language proficiency requirement for entry into the course.
 - 1.6. International Students entering Australia under a temporary entry permit (e.g. a student visa) are responsible for ensuring the relevant visa is issued in time to attend orientation.
 - 1.7. Attendance at orientation is compulsory; therefore, International Students must ensure the relevant visa is issued in time to attend orientation. Special permission must be sought for non-attendance at the assigned date of orientation.
 - 1.8. Students are expected to attend classes and complete all assessments during a course and must abide by all rules and regulations of QIBA that are in force at the time of their enrolment.
 - 1.9. Students must maintain a minimum of 50% in course progress in accordance with Visa requirements. Students must maintain financial status with the College at all times, in accordance with the detailed payment schedule.
 - 1.10. QIBA may use its discretion to cancel or temporarily suspend the enrolment of a student on the grounds of misconduct by the student, financial status (students with overdue fees) or on grounds of compassionate or compelling circumstances.
 - 1.11. International students are protected by the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) legislative framework located at: <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Pages/Regulatoryinformation.aspx>
 - 1.12. VET Students are responsible for supplying the Unique Student Identifier (USI) number to the college before any transcript, qualification or testamur may be issued. Students may seek advice from QIBA to apply for a USI.
- 2. Fees
- 2.1. Students are required to pay in advance the agreed tuition fees at the start of every term. Payments are scheduled to be made no later than the first day of the commencement of the course, then no later than the first day of a new term as per your payment schedule. All fees must be finalised no later than the due date. QIBA encourages students to discuss an instalment payment plan if required; however, QIBA retains all discretion of approval. Any student who has an outstanding college debt will not be eligible to receive a Statement of Attainment, Academic Transcript, graduate or receive a qualification until payment is made in full.
 - 2.2. The total tuition fees stated in the Offer Letter are based on a full-time study load.
 - 2.3. Students enrolling in a second or subsequent qualification with QIBA are required to ensure full payment of tuition fees and charges for the new qualification is made no later than the first day of that term. Details of the payment due dates are contained in the letter of offer or as agreed and documented in your student records. Failure to make payment by the due date will incur penalty fees as detailed in the schedule of additional fees and charges. Failure to commence study by the notified date may incur additional charges and/or cancellation of enrolment.
 - 2.4. Where a student's study period is extended beyond the period of the student visa, the student will be liable for visa application and related costs.

3. Privacy of Information

Queensland International Business Academy

Level 2 108 Margaret Street BRISBANE QLD 4000 t: 07 3186 6449

- 3.1. Information of students, collected prior to commencing and over the course of their studies, may be made available to relevant Commonwealth, State Government agencies and to the Tuition Protection Scheme and the TPS Funds Director, to ensure compliance with QIBA's obligations under the ESOS Act 2000, ESOS Regulations 2001, the ESOS National Code 2018 and other relevant Commonwealth and State legislation.
- 3.2. In the event of circumstances requiring critical incident management, QIBA reserves the right to disclose limited personal information of a student where it is considered necessary to meet or maintain its duty of care responsibilities to that student.
- 3.3. With the exception of parties referred to in clauses 3.1 and 3.2, information will only be provided to other parties with the student's permission.

4. Student Refund Policy

4.1 Tuition fees will be refunded in full where:

- a. the course does not start on the starting date notified in the Letter of Offer and Written Agreement
- b. the course is discontinued after it starts and before it is completed; stops being provided after it starts and before it is completed;
- c. the course is not provided fully to the student because QIBA has a sanction imposed by a government regulator; or
- d. an offer of a place is withdrawn by QIBA and no incorrect or incomplete information has been provided by the student.

4.1.1 Instead of refunding all tuition fees, QIBA may offer you a place on an alternative course and you may decide whether to accept this offer or not. Where you agree to this arrangement, QIBA will not be liable to refund the money owed for the original enrolment.

- a. If you accept the place on another course within QIBA, a new letter of offer and written agreement will be developed and provided to you for acceptance.
- b. If QIBA is unable to provide a refund or offer you a place in another course, the Tuition Protection Service will place you in an alternative course at no extra cost. If this is not possible, you will be entitled to a refund as calculated by the Authority.
- c. A full refund will also be provided to you in the following circumstances (evidence required):
 - You are unable to obtain a student visa
 - You cannot commence the course because of illness or a disability;
 - Where there is a death of a close family member (parent, sibling, spouse or child); or
 - At the discretion of the Principal or approved representative, when other special or extenuating circumstances have prevented you from commencing your studies including political, civil or natural events.

4.2 Partial Refunds

Partial refunds will be provided in the following circumstances:

- a. If you give more than 28 days written notice before the commencement of the study period that you will not be undertaking the course, the tuition fees paid for the study period are refundable less a 20% administration fee.
- b. If you have not met the conditions included in the letter of offer and you withdraw 1 – 28 days before Course commencement, the tuition fees paid for the study period will be refunded less a 20% administration fee.
- c. If you withdraw from a course 1 – 28 days before the course commencement for any other reason 50% of the tuition fees paid thus far will be refunded.

4.3 Students who are not eligible for a refund

- a. Where QIBA terminates your enrolment because of a failure to comply with QIBA policies, misbehaviour or unsatisfactory course progress or attendance.
- b. If your visa is cancelled during a study period.
- c. If you withdraw from a course after the course start date.
- d. If QIBA makes an offer and you provide incorrect or incomplete information, the offer will be withdrawn, and no refund will be payable.

4.4 Payment of refunds

- a. Students, who withdraw from a course and wish to seek a refund, must apply to QIBA in writing using the Refund Application Form. Students who have not completed these forms are not eligible for consideration of a refund or reduction in fees.
- b. Refunds will be paid within 14 days in full to students when (provider default section - 27.1 of ESOS Act 2000):

- a course has not started on the agreed starting date; or
 - a course is stopped after the course has commenced and before it is completed; or
 - a course is not fully provided to you because of a sanction put on QIBA.
- c. In all other circumstances agreed refunds will be paid within 28 days of receiving the completed Refund Application Form with supporting documentation as required (student default section - 27.2 of ESOS Act 2000).
- d. The outcome of the refund assessment will be provided by written notice to your registered email address, outlining the decision and reasons for the decision along with any applicable refund or adjustment notice.
- e. Refunds will be paid in Australian dollars to the person who made the original payment.
- f. If you do not agree with the refund decision, you may access QIBA Complaints and Appeals process.

5. Tuition Protection Service

The ESOS legislation protects the tuition fees paid by international students by placing placement and refund obligations on providers in different default situations and through the Tuition Protection Service. The ESOS legislation also helps to ensure students meet their student visa conditions for attending classes and making satisfactory progress in their studies while in Australia.

6. Deferral, Suspension or Cancellation of Enrolment Policy

Under certain limited circumstances, a student's enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled. A student's enrolment can be deferred, suspended or cancelled by QIBA, or by the student. Deferral means to delay the commencement of a course. Suspension means the temporary postponement of enrolment during a course. Cancellation means termination of enrolment in a course.

7. Effect of deferral, suspension or cancellation of enrolment on a student's visa

Deferral, suspension or cancellation of an enrolment is likely to have an effect on a student's visa. Students should contact the nearest Australian Department of Home Affairs office or refer to the department's web site <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/Trav> for further information. All deferrals, suspensions and cancellations of enrolment are notified to Australian Department of Home Affairs via the PRISMS system and all documentation about the deferral, suspension or cancellation of a student is filed in the student's file. For further details on deferral, suspension or cancellation of enrolment, please refer to deferral, suspension or cancellation Policy available at <https://www.qiba.edu.au/policies-forms-2/>

8. Your rights

The ESOS framework protects your rights, including:

- 8.1. Your right to receive, before enrolling, current and accurate information about the courses, fees, modes of study and other information from your provider and your provider's agent.
- 8.2. Your right to sign a written agreement with your provider before or as you pay fees, setting out the services to be provided, fees payable and information about refunds of course money. You should keep a copy of your written agreement.
- 8.3. Your right to get the education you paid for. The ESOS framework includes consumer protection that will allow you to receive a refund or to be placed in another course if your provider is unable to teach your course.

9. Complaints and Appeals Process

9.1 QIBA is committed to providing a professional, fair and transparent complaint and appeal handling process and will respond to any complaint or appeal you make regarding your dealings with QIBA, our education agents or any related party QIBA has an arrangement with.

9.2 All complaints and appeals will try to be resolved informally but if this cannot happen the following process will apply:

- a. Complete the complaint and appeals form which is available on the website or from the reception desk;
- b. The handling of a complaint or appeal is to commence within ten (10) working days of the lodgement of the complaint or appeal and all reasonable measures will be taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable;
- c. You will be given the opportunity to formally present your case at no cost and you may be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings;
- d. QIBA will conduct the assessment of your complaint/appeal in a professional, fair and transparent manner;
- e. If you are not satisfied with the outcome you may appeal internally to the Principal for a review;
- f. You will be given a written statement of the outcome of the internal appeal, including a statement of the outcome and reasons for the outcome;
- g. If the internal complaints handling and appeals process is not successful then you have an opportunity for a body or person that is independent of QIBA to externally review your complaint or appeal. QIBA will advise you within (10) working days of
